

Ethical Policy Statement

As a responsible UK manufacturer, Filtermist International Ltd is committed to ensuring that all aspects of its operations are conducted in an ethical manner.

Filtermist International Ltd complies with the obligations of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and confirm that no such practices take part within its organisation and that it has checked, to the best of its ability that no such practices exist within its own supply chain.

Filtermist also commits to the ongoing verification of its supply chains where appropriate, to ensure that such practices do not develop.

Filtermist also adheres to the UK Bribery Act 2010, and requests compliance from all customers.
